

PARTNERS IN EXCELLENCE

At Phi Theta Kappa, we take great pride in our partnerships and the relationships that we have built over the years. A Partner in Excellence is a senior institution that not only sees the value in recruiting top-notch Phi Theta Kappa transfer students, but also is one that takes an active role in recruiting our members. Partners in Excellence are institutions that subscribe to CollegeFish.org, those who have designated one or more Phi Theta Kappa Transfer Scholarships or those that participate in Phi Theta Kappa's Annual Convention by exhibiting, sponsoring or advertising in the Convention Program. Contact us today for more information on becoming a Partner in Excellence.

SCHOLAR SPOTLIGHT

MICHELLE KEMENY • MESA COMMUNITY COLLEGE (AZ)

After Michelle Kemeny served in the U.S. Air Force, she was unsure of her next steps. Thanks to Mesa Community College and her involvement in Phi Theta Kappa, Kemeny overcame Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder and reengaged in civilian life in pursuit of becoming a registered dietitian. Kemeny earned two prestigious honors bestowed to community college scholars - being named to the 2014 All-USA Community College Academic Team and receiving a Guistwhite Scholarship. "Receiving these scholarships has given me new meaning in life and a purpose to move forward. It has given me the credentials and confidence to be a great mentor to my fellow students, friends and family." As she prepared for transfer, Kemeny credits CollegeFish.org with helping her stay focused and organized. "CollegeFish.org is an amazing tool. It let me search and compare universities. It sent me email updates about scholarships and schools I might be interested in. It even kept me on track with enrollment and transfer deadlines." Headed to Arizona State University, Kemeny's military service and leadership positions in Phi Theta Kappa have equipped her with an outstanding foundation for continued success.
